1878-1883 Autograph Album of Ellen (Fulford) Huse of Littleton, New Hampshire

1878-1883 autograph album that was presented to Ellen Fulford of Littleton, New Hampshire, by her future husband Daniel Francis Huse at Christmas in 1878. Ellen used the same page to write a welcome to the future inscribers.

The album measures approximately 7-3/4" x 4-3/4" and contains the sentiments of 50 of Ellen's relatives, friends and schoolmates. An alphabetical surname list and an alphabetical list of the signers, together with any personal information they offered, appear at the end of this post.

From online research, hopefully correct: [corrections and additions welcome!]

Ellen Fulford was born 27 January 1859 at Littleton, New Hampshire, the daughter of Eliphalet and Ruth Brown (Parker) Fulford. Eliphalet Fulford of Littleton, New Hampshire, inscribed a page in his daughter's album.

Thanks to the generosity of a person who rescues orphan photographs: a Carte de Visite made at St. Johnsbury, Vermont, of Ellen and her parents.

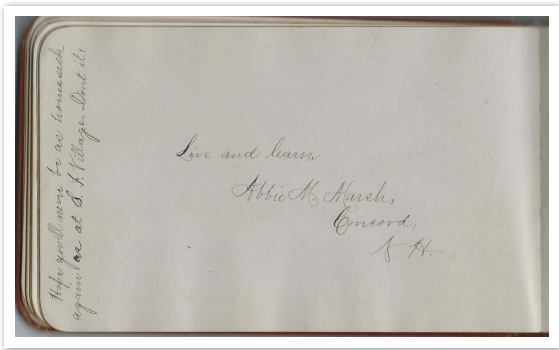

Ellen had several older brothers, but only one of them inscribed a page in her album. George Fulford, by then living at Peacham, Vermont, signed a page on February 28, 1879. His wife, Mary H. (Graham) Fulford, also signed a page.

Some of the entries by Littleton, New Hampshire, folks appear to have been written in response to Ellen's imminent move to Franconia, New Hampshire, perhaps after her marriage to Daniel Francis Huse on November 4, 1879. Some were written after her move by Franconia, New Hampshire, folks.

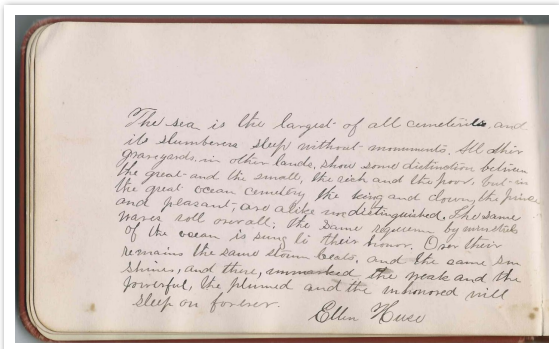

Abbie M. Marsh of Concord, New Hampshire, mentioned the homesickness that Ellen suffered after the move.

As the map below shows, the distance between Littleton and Franconia is not great by modern standards, but it must have been a challenge in the 1870s and 1880s, especially during the winter season.

Sadly, Ellen (Fulford) Huse died on 19 May 1888 at Littleton, New Hampshire. Ellen herself had inscribed a page in her album on the subject of the sea as a cemetery, where all were viewed the same, the rich, the poor, the famous, the unheralded. Perhaps she had suffered with illness for some years and knew that her life would be cut short.

Daniel Francis Huse married Harriet Graves in 1889. He lived until 1940.
